

Facebook Rules of Engagement

sendPACT has established some basic Facebook rules of engagement to ensure that our page is a safe space for everybody.

Please note the following rules:

1. There will be no cursing in our page – ever. That includes words like "idiot" or "stupid". It also includes any statement that the page admin deems inappropriate in nature.
2. All opinions will be treated with mutual respect, unless they violate the aforementioned rules. Treat your fellow Facebook page members with that same respect.
3. Please stick to the mission statement of this Facebook group. Irrelevant content does not belong here it belongs on other relevant pages. This is sendPACT mission statement "To support families to implement basic therapy at home and to make meaningful changes to the current SEND system."
4. If a single individual starts a discussion that all other members disagree with, it may, at the discretion of the page admin, be considered trolling. Trolls will be blocked from the page.
5. If a member personally attacks another member with words that are harmful, threatening or not in-line with our mutual respect policy, that member will receive a warning. Two warnings and you're out.
6. Do not post graphic or disturbing photos, videos and other media in sendPACT's page. If you are not sure about the content that you want to post, send us a private message to get advised by an admin.
7. If someone mentions you by name please respond directly to that person on the same post. If the comment is inflammatory please report it to the page admin.
8. Think before you post! Facebook is one of the biggest sites on the internet – what goes up can never really come down.
9. It is considered impolite to repost or draw attention to the fact that a page admin or another member has deleted your comment.
10. If you are going to comment, we would prefer it if you could try and add valuable discussion to the conversation. Be friendly, be fair and use common sense.
11. sendPACT's page admins are allowed to block members that don't comply with the house rules.
